ASSOCIATE
STUDIO DIRECTOR
PROJECT LEADER

A native of Dallas, Sara Good, joined GFF in 2007, was named an Associate in 2018 and Studio Director in 2023. Her practice focuses on projects ranging from small renovations to various mixed-use and multifamily projects. Sara has also led the efforts on a large mixed use development in Fort Worth, where she oversaw all retail leases and was responsible for tenant coordination. Most recently she has been focusing her efforts on mixed use / multi family projects in Central Texas and Denver, CO.

Sara has a Bachelor of Arts in Architectural Studies with an emphasis in Fine Arts from the University of Kansas, and in 2006, she received a Masters of Architecture from the University of Texas at Austin. She graduated from the inaugural AIA Dallas Emerging Leaders program (Class of 2009), a leadership program that mentors emerging professionals for leadership in the firm, the architectural profession, and the community. After serving on a plethora of committees for AIA Dallas, such as the Home Tour, and being active in Ladies in Commercial Real Estate and ULI Young Leaders, she wanted to become more involved in similar groups in her new home city of Austin. Since moving here in June 2018 to open the GFF Austin office, she has joined Preservation Austin, AIA Austin and ULI Austin as part of her continued efforts to promote GFF as a leader in the architectural industry. Her involvement in local non-profit organizations, such as the Hill Country Conservancy, has become her current passion as she helps to preserve and protect the Texas Hill Country she now calls home.
